DOUG KINGSMORE STADIUM

Doug Kingsmore Stadium, the home of Tiger baseball since 1970, has seen many changes and improvements over the years, but it has not lost its aesthetic beauty and unique feel on the west side of the Clemson University campus.

Doug Kingsmore Stadium has over 4,500 permanent seats, but is capable of holding 6,272 fans thanks to a hill area down the left-field line that is popular with students.

The park features a terrace in the outfield adjacent to the fence, similar to the old Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Former Head Coach Bill Wilhelm liked the look and practicality of a field with grass around the outfield instead of gravel or dirt.

In 2015, a three-story building was constructed behind the first-base dugout. It houses a state-of-the-art clubhouse, coaches offices and a player lounge among other amenities.

SEASON REVIEW STORY

The 2022 season was filled with ups and downs, and it ultimately ended prematurely in the ACC Tournament. The Tigers won their first 14 games of the season and had a 22-5 record in non-conference games, but a slow start on ACC weekends caused them to fall just short of an NCAA Tournament bid. The Tigers ended the season with a 35-23 overall record and 13-16 ACC mark.

The 2022 Tigers still realized several achievements, both team and individual. Clemson totaled 100 home runs, third most in school history and the most since 2002, and a .482 slugging percentage, its highest mark since 2010. Clemson's 1.7 homers per game were its second-highest mark in school history. The Tigers also averaged 7.6 runs per game, their highest figure since 2010. The Tiger defense had a .973 fielding percentage, the third-highest mark in school history, as well.

The Tigers put up some big offensive numbers against a tough schedule that included 27 of their 58 games against NCAA Tournament teams. Clemson also totaled 13 wins over top-25 ranked teams, its most since 2010, and was 5-0 against SEC teams by a combined score of 30-13.

A key in those victories was its ability to close out games, as Clemson was 29-0 when leading entering both the seventh and eighth innings and 32-0 when leading entering the ninth inning.

Max Wagner, a finalist for the Dick Howser Trophy, emerged as one of the nation's top hitters and third basemen by leading the team in batting average (.369), runs (66), doubles (15), homers (27), RBIs (76), slugging percentage (.852), walks (45) and on-base percentage (.496) on his way to earning unanimous first-team All-America, ACC Player-of-the-Year and First-Team All-ACC honors. His 27 long balls tied the school record and tied for third most in the nation, while his home run every 7.5 at-bats easily set the Tiger record. His .852 slugging percentage was second in the nation, and he also had five two-homer games and reached base via a hit, walk or hit-by-pitch in each of the last 42 games.

Blake Wright, who won the Tiger Baseball Award as Clemson's best leader, emerged as a standout second baseman after coming off the bench during much of the first half of the year. The Third-Team All-ACC selection hit .349 with 11 homers and 40 RBIs along with a strong .981 fielding percentage. Cooper Ingle batted .351 with eight homers and 44 RBIs as a valuable utility player, and shortstop Benjamin Blackwell hit .327 with a solid .951 fielding percentage.

Mack Anglin, who won the Stowe Award as Clemson's most valuable pitcher, was a Third-Team All-ACC selection who was 6-6 with a 4.48 ERA as the Friday starter during the entire season. Ryan Ammons added a team-high eight saves to lead the bullpen, which was the strength of the pitching staff. Jackson Lindley rebounded as an effective reliever in 2022 with a 6-0 record and 4.28 ERA in a team-high 31 relief outings.

The Tigers jumped out to a 14-0 record, the third-best start in school history and best since 1992. It started with a three-game sweep of Indiana by a combined score of 33-8. Bryar Hawkins' walkoff sacrifice fly in the 10th inning in the finale capped the sweep.

After a 2-1 midweek home win over College of Charleston, the Tigers swept Hartford by a combined score of 47-7, including 41-6 in a doubleheader on Feb. 26. In the finale, Clemson won 28-3, as the 28 runs were its most since 1979 and tied for second most in Tiger history. Clemson, who scored in every inning in which it batted for the seventh time in school history, won by 25 runs, tied for the third-highest scoring margin in school history.

Clemson outlasted USC Upstate 8-5 in a midweek home game, then the Tigers swept South Carolina in three games at three different sites by a combined score of 18-6.

In the opener at Founders Park, Jonathan French hit a tying home run in the eighth inning, then Hawkins, who won the Bob Bradley Award as Clemson's MVP of the series, hit the go-ahead, run-scoring single with two outs in the ninth inning in Clemson's 3-2 win. Nick Hoffmann led the Tigers to a 10-2 win at Segra Park in Columbia before Clemson completed the sweep at home with a 5-2 victory. It marked Clemson's first sweep of the season series of three or more games against its rival since 1996.

The Tigers continued their winning ways with a midweek 4-2 win over Michigan State in Greenville behind Billy Barlow's strong start before winning the first two home games against Northeastern. But the Huskies clipped the Tigers 5-3 on March 13 to end Clemson's 15-game winning streak, which included a win in its final game of the 2021 season. The 15-game winning streak was tied for sixth longest in Tiger history and was Clemson's longest since winning 17 games in a row in 2006.

Clemson lost its next three games, one against Georgia State and two against No. 23 Miami (Fla.) before salvaging the finale 20-5 against the Hurricanes behind a 20-hit performance. Then, Clemson split midweek home games against Coastal Carolina (7-16) and Winthrop (10-2).

The Tigers hit the road for a series at Pittsburgh, where it suffered two defeats in a shortened series due to cold temperatures, then they defeated Winthrop 9-3 in their first game in Rock Hill since 1993.

Anglin was masterful in a series-opening 14-3 home win over No. 22 NC State before the Wolfpack outlasted the Tigers in the final two games of the series. Clemson came back and defeated No. 19 Georgia 4-3 in a home midweek game behind another effective start by Barlow.

Clemson suffered a three-game sweep at No. 6 Notre Dame, but then won six of its next seven games, starting with an 11-2 win over USC Upstate in Greenville to complete the season series sweep.

The Tigers found success on the road at No. 23 Wake Forest by winning two of three games. Clemson scored the only run of the game in the ninth inning in the opener, then hit five homers, including two by Caden Grice, in the 10-8 series-clinching win in the finale. That game started Wagner's streak of a homer in five straight games to tie a school record, as he hit seven long balls during that stretch.

Clemson completed the season series sweep of No. 10 Georgia with an 8-4 win in Athens and then defeated East Tennessee State 12-2 before winning two of three home games over No. 9 Florida State. Wagner's grand slam on an 0-2 pitch in the eighth inning lifted Clemson to a 6-4 win in the opener. Wagner, who won the 2022 Mitchell Award as Clemson's most valuable player, hit two homers in each of the first two games of the series and later earned ACC Player-of-the-Week honors in back-to-back weeks, a first by a Tiger since 2012.

After midweek home wins over Presbyterian (12-3) and No. 22 Wofford (17-4), Clemson suffered a three-game sweep at No. 10 Louisville. But the Tigers responded by going 7-2 in their final nine ACC regular-season games.

After four days off for final exams, Clemson swept No. 21 Georgia Tech at home by a combined score of 35-14, limiting one of the nation's best offenses to only 29 hits in the series. The series marked the debut of Will Taylor, who provided a spark after suffering a football-season-ending injury in the fall. College of Charleston then defeated the Tigers 7-5 at Segra Park.

Virginia handed Clemson two losses in three games in Charlottesville, as Geoffrey Gilbert's start in the second game led the Tigers to an 8-2 victory. Clemson stayed on the road to play at Coastal Carolina, who defeated the Tigers 17-2.

The Tigers concluded the regular season with a three-game sweep of Boston College to clinch a spot in the ACC Tournament. Clemson outscored the Eagles 26-3 in the series thanks to three quality starts on the mound by Anglin, Gilbert and Barlow. It marked the fewest runs allowed by Clemson in an ACC series since 2017.

The Tigers headed to the ACC Tournament, which was held in Charlotte, N.C., needing to win at least one game to have a strong shot at an NCAA Tournament at-large bid, but they went 0-2, losses to North Carolina and No. 2 Virginia Tech. Then on May 31, Clemson announced a change in leadership, as Monte Lee was not retained.

Three Tigers were selected in the MLB draft after the season. Wagner was drafted in the second round (No. 42 overall) by the Baltimore Orioles, Anglin was picked in the seventh round (No. 205 overall) by the Kansas City Royals and Gilbert was chosen in the 13th round (No. 400 overall) by the New York Yankees.
